

Town of Haxtun
March 17, 2020
EMERGENCY MEETING
Haxtun Town Hall

The Haxtun Town Council met for an emergency meeting at 6:00 p.m. The meeting was opened by Mayor Todd Workman at the Haxtun Town Hall. Roll call was taken with the following council members present: Mike Ensminger, Rick Lockwood, Lori Lundgren, Jason Hadeen and Brandon Bieseimer. Tana Pope joined by speaker telephone. Mayor Workman led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Staff members present were Ron Carpenter, Town Superintendent, Tanya Mayhew, Chief of Police, and Karie Wilson, Town Clerk/Treasurer.

Discussion was held in regarding Town of Haxtun operations, in consideration of the recent events taking place in our state and our country. Concerns were raised regarding sales tax revenue and if Ron should continue to move forward with projects planned for the year.

The council would like the Town to move forward with street and other infrastructure projects as budgeted for 2020.

The Town public works crew will follow state guidelines for operating during the pandemic.

The police department will follow state guidelines for their department.

The Town Hall door is closed to the public, but staff will continue to serve the public, following state guidelines for social distancing.

The Haxtun Library is closed to the public. The Library will continue to encourage people to use the online library for their reading needs.

A motion was made by M. Ensminger and seconded by B. Bieseimer to adjourn. The meeting was adjourned at 6:36 pm subject to the call of the Mayor.
